Beaverton Man Indicted on Multiple Charges Stemming from Domestic Violence Case

On the morning of Saturday, September 27, 2025, a Beaverton police officer was flagged down near SW Osprey Drive and SW Murray Boulevard in south Beaverton by a woman who reported she had been violently assaulted by her boyfriend. The victim, who sustained multiple stab wounds, was transported to a local hospital where she received treatment and is expected to recover.

The victim identified the suspect as Juan Gabriel Valero, 34, of Beaverton, who fled the scene on a motorcycle prior to police arrival. Detectives immediately began an investigation and attempted to locate Valero.

On Sunday morning, September 28, 2025, members of the Beaverton Police Department, with assistance from the Washington County Sheriff's Office Tactical Negotiations Team, located Valero at an apartment complex in Aloha. Valero surrendered without incident and was taken into custody around 10:30 AM. He was subsequently lodged in the Washington County Jail where he remains in custody as of this writing.

During the investigation a search of Valero's home was conducted. During that search, detectives recovered physical evidence related to the assault in this case.

Today, October 3rd, 2025, Juan Gabriel Valero was indicted by a Washington County Grand Jury on the following charges:

- Assault in the First Degree
- Strangulation
- Menacing
- Unlawful Use of a Weapon
- Felon in Possession of a Firearm
