Grand Jury Indicts Suspect in Fatal Hit-and-Run

Beaverton, Oregon – On October 4, 2025, at approximately 8:46 PM, Beaverton Police officers responded to a hit-and-run crash on Scholls Ferry Road near Hall Boulevard that claimed the life of 67-year-old Emmanuel Del Cid of Beaverton.

Yesterday, following an investigation by Beaverton Police Department detectives, a Washington County Grand Jury indicted 31-year-old Taylor Willan, of Washington County, on one count of Felony Hit-and-Run in connection with the crash.

Detectives located Willan's vehicle, a white Audi sedan, on October 8, 2025, and subsequently arrested Willan on October 13, 2025, at a residence in south Beaverton. Willan is in custody at the Washington County Jail as of this writing.

Anyone with additional information regarding this incident is asked to contact Detective Chris Crosslin at 503-526-2280 or ccrosslin@beavertonoregon.gov.
