54th BPD Citizen's Academy

Beaverton Police Department is hosting its 54th Citizen's Academy starting March 8th. The academy is free and is on Thursday nights for ten weeks. The academy is designed to help foster partnerships between the police department and citizens with the goal of fighting crime together.

The academy teaches a variety of topics including community policing, use of force, search and seizure and fraud. Along with classroom instruction, the academy offers hands on demonstrations, a tour of Washington County Jail and a tour of Washington County's 911 Dispatch center.

For more information about the academy and how to apply to be a participant in our 55th Citizen's Academy, fall of 2018, please visit Beaverton Police Department's webpage at <https://beavertonpolice.org/227/Citizens-Academy>.

Participants using a MILO use of force simulator.
