Invasion Of Privacy Arrests Lead To Burglary Arrest

On May 15, 2018 Beaverton Police officers arrested 27-year-old Diego Lopez-Herrea for Invasion of Privacy. This was Lopez-Herrea's second arrest for the same crime within 5 weeks. On May 20th Beaverton officers added an additional Burglary in the First Degree charge for a third incident which occurred on May 16, 2018.

On April 7, 2018, Lopez-Herrea was arrested after peering into a window in the 13700 block of SW Electric Street. On May 15th, an almost identical incident occurred where Lopez-Herrea was arrested after peering into a window in the 6400 block of SW Alice Lane after he trespassed on the property. On May 20th, Beaverton officers added the additional burglary charge after learning Lopez-Herrea had been inside a home in the 6500 block of SW 123rd Ave on May 16th. The May 16th incident involved Lopez-Herrea trying on the female victim's clothes. All the victims were adult females.

Lopez-Herrea continues to be held in Washington County Jail for the pending charges. Beaverton Police Department believes there may be more victims and urge any further victims to call 503-629-0111 to report the crime.
