Two Arrested After Crash

On August 18, 2018 at 9:05 p.m. Beaverton Police officers attempted to stop a 2018 Mercedes near SW Canyon/SW 110th. A witness reported the occupants of the vehicle had stolen hundreds of dollars' worth of merchandise from Kohl's.

A short vehicle pursuit ensued and the driver of the suspect vehicle crashed into a concrete divider near Hwy 26/Sylvan. Two of the occupants fled the vehicle as officers took one occupant into custody. A K9 track was able to locate one of the occupants who fled. The third occupant was not located.

40-Year-old Jessica Marie Jones, from Vancouver, WA, was charged with Attempting to Elude Felony, Reckless Driving, Criminal Mischief in the First Degree and 3 counts of Identity Theft. 22-Year-old Katelyn Noell Johnson, from Vancouver, WA, was charged with Theft in the Second Degree, Attempting to Elude Misdemeanor and PCS Methamphetamine.

Officers located the stolen items from Kohl's, drugs, and evidence of identity theft in the vehicle. Both Jones and Johnson were taken to Washington County Jail.
