Disturbance With A Weapon, Suspect Information Sought

At 4:52 a.m. Beaverton Police officers responded to the 13800 block of SW Hargis Road regarding multiple neighbors hearing gun shots.

Beaverton Police officers arrived and found a motorhome trailer had been shot numerous times. At least one person and a dog were inside the motorhome at the time of the shooting. The dog was injured and died. The motorhome is potentially associated with a home on SW Hargis.

Beaverton Police detectives are on scene and the investigation is on-going. The suspect/s are unknown and detectives are asking anyone with information regarding this incident to call non-emergency dispatch at 503-629-0111 and speak to a Beaverton Police officer. Beaverton Police detectives do not believe there is continued risk to the public regarding this incident.
