Male Arrested For Breaking Into Cars

On October 1, 2019 Beaverton Police Officers were dispatched to the Sorrento Bluff Apartments to investigate a suspect who broke into several vehicles. One victim was able to provide officers with a picture of the suspect.

Officers identified the individual as 18-year-old Treyvon Harrison, who lived in Vancouver, WA. On October 8, 2019, Mr. Harrison turned himself into Beaverton Police officers at the Beaverton Police Station.

Mr. Harrison was cited into Beaverton Municipal Court for three counts of Unlawful Entry Into A Motor Vehicle. While at Beaverton Police Station, and in collaboration with the Portland Police Bureau, PPB officers took Mr. Harrison into custody regarding criminal acts that occurred in their jurisdiction, PPB case number 19-203801. Mr. Harrison was taken to Multnomah County Jail by Portland Police officers.
