OIS Update: Suspect Captured

On November 8, 2019, 20-year-old Calvin Ramone Davenport was located and arrested by the United States Marshals Service in Washington State. Davenport is being held in the Snohomish County Jail and is awaiting extradition to the State of Oregon.

Background

On July 11, 2019, a BPD officer was involved in an officer involved shooting near the intersection of SW West Slope Drive / SW 83rd Avenue. At the time, BPD detectives were conducting an undercover mission to apprehend suspects involved in sex trafficking. The investigation showed Mr. Davenport accelerated his vehicle towards an officer which resulted in an officer involved shooting. No officers were seriously injured.

On July 17, 2019, a Washington County Grand Jury indicted Mr. Davenport on charges of Attempted Aggravated Murder, Attempted Assault in the First Degree, Assault in the Third Degree, Promoting Prostitution, Reckless Endangering, Fail to Perform the Duties of a Driver, Criminal Mischief in the Second Degree, Unauthorized Use of a Motor Vehicle and Fleeing or Attempting to Elude a Police Officer (Felony). An arrest warrant through the Washington County Circuit Court was issued for Mr. Davenport.
